

Drop-in Article

In our continuing efforts to provide service to the Tax Practitioner Community, we are encouraging practitioners to use the toll free Practitioner Priority Services Number.

Practitioners should use this number as their primary communications vehicle for contacting the IRS about their client's account related issues.

The nationwide toll free number is 866-860-4259.

This consolidated service was established to provide a standardized level of service to the practitioner community.